OFFER
The publication of the public registration of your trademark constitutes the foundation of our proposal. We extend an offer to you to register your brand in our private database, www.tmp-register.com. Acceptance of our offer requires the remittance of the complete publication fee and engenders a binding contract between yourself and TMP. The contractual agreement is both irrevocable and legally binding, commencing upon receipt of payment. It is essential to note that this private publication is not associated with the publication of official notifications nor does it serve as a registration of government organizations. Additionally, we presently do not have an established business relationship with your organization. This offer specifically pertains to entry into our database, www.tmp-register.com. We emphasize that this communication does not constitute an invoice, and payment is not required unless our offer is accepted. Our General Terms and Conditions, available on our website, provide further elucidation on the terms and conditions. Please do not hesitate to contact us at info@tmp-register.com should you require any assistance or additional information.
